How to Make Pine
Cough Syrup at Home

Has no equal for prompt results. Takes but five minutes to make, and saves you about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pine in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel the take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—irritated membranes—and this Pine and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary cough.

Pine is a genuine concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pine" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pine Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Shelter Sheds at Depot Near Done

Work on the $45,000 butterfly sheds and granolithic paving on the train level at the Southern railway passenger station here is being pressed steadily. The frame-work of the butterfly wings which provide shelter for travelers or persons meeting arriving friends is nearing completion. The sheeting being on with tile, slate or some other durable roofing material to be superposed. Three sections of these sheds paralleling the several tracks at the station and aggregating about 800 feet have been constructed, while the concrete paving has been completed on the eastern side of the train-level, and materials and a concrete mixer are in place for the construction of a similar pavement along the tracks nearest the ticket office and waiting-rooms.

The shelter-sheds drain to the center and through hollow iron columns which serve to uphold the wooden structure above and to provide an escape for rain-water. When a considerable weight of snow accumulates on the roofs sloping inward, the weight of snow will probably be necessary for this to be cleared away, lest the weight of the wet snow be too much strain for the roof-structure. Rain-water will drain naturally into the trough and through the iron columns.

With a few days of favorable weather, the concrete paving portion of the job can be completed in a few days, and by that time the tiling of other roofing material will doubtless be ready to put on. The improvement will save those arriving or departing or meeting friends from exposure to the weather and will also provide a dry, smooth walkway instead of the soft, wet sand which has heretofore been the only provision for pedestrians.

Visitors to the city continue to remark upon the roundabout route from the passenger ticket office, baggage and lunch-room down the incline to the subway, through that and thence up the long, steep flight of steps when a direct route with a good grade from the eastern door of the waiting-room to the trains would be so easily practicable and quite as safe.

A descent of about six feet from the doorway of the station would allow travelers to pass under intervening tracks and ascend to the train level near the car doors without liability to injury. Such a short subway with two or three ascents to reach the several tracks would simplify matters and prove a great public convenience. In the judgment of strangers and many home people, meanwhile the down-again-up-again circuitous route is the only one available for those arriving or departing.

SEBURN REALTY SOLD AT SATISFACTORY PRICES
Despite the chilly weather, the realty sale advertised for yesterday by Keeling Bros. realtors and insurance, was pulled off yesterday, and despite a smaller attendance than anticipated at both sales very satisfactory results were reported. At Golf Club park, just across the Southern railway tracks from the Golf club grounds, a number of lots were sold at auction.

Another sale was of lots in a subdivision on the Bradley, on the new Richmond-Danville highway about a mile east of this city. This property is to be developed for home sites.

This firm is planning a sale next Saturday at 2 P. M., of a number of lots adjoining the Golf club lands on the eastward, and signs have been placed along the Stokesdale road directing people to the property to be offered. At this sale, the realtors announce that they will give away several turkeys, $25 in gold and other valuable presents to be awarded by lot.

MOTHERS! CAREFULLY GUARD HEALTH

BY DR. STANLEY GIBSON
Attending Physician, Children's Ward, Wesley Memorial Hospital, Chicago.

Many women enjoy better health during the prenatal period than at any other time.

In many cases, however, there are ailments some of which are important only because they produce discomfort, while others may result more seriously if neglected.

It is because of the possibility of such complications that every prospective mother should place herself at once under medical care.

Among these ailments the so-called toxemia or poisoning is very important because of its possible danger both to mother and child. We have emphasized the fact that the expectant mother must eliminate both her own waste products and those of the child.

If for any reason these waste products are not thrown off but accumulate in the system a condition of serious poisoning may result. This poisoning is most often found in cases where there is defective functioning of the kidneys. To determine whether the kidneys are doing their work satisfactorily, a chemical and microscopic examination is necessary.

Many Symptoms.
There are, however, certain symptoms which suggest the onset of auto-intoxication. Serious vomiting, persistent headaches, dimness of vision, or spots before the eyes, swelling of the face and hands, dizziness, or neurotic pains are danger signals which should not be ignored.

The appearance of one or more of these symptoms does not by any means indicate that toxemia is present. They may arise from other causes and of little significance.

Nevertheless, the physician should be notified so that he may be on the alert to institute proper treatment at once if any evidence of beginning toxemia is present. Many women have been led to believe that various aches and pains are necessary accompaniments of pregnancy and on that account neglect symptoms which should receive prompt attention.

Easy to Prevent.
This auto-intoxication is usually easy to prevent. Nor is the method of its prevention difficult to understand or to carry out. It means first of all that the ordinary orders of health, such as proper diet, good hygiene, and temperate habits should be strictly observed.

The following points are especially important. A large amount of water should be taken daily. The diet should not be excessively rich. Constipation is to be avoided. Fresh air, moderate exercise, rest and sleep must not be neglected.

The importance of these simple measures in preventing serious complications has become so well recognized that in some of the clinics in the larger cities visiting nurses are sent into the homes of the poor by charitable organizations to give instructions to the mother.

The results have been most striking in showing the lessened mortality to mother and child as a result of such advice. Surely the mother more fortunately situated should not fail to avail herself of the same valuable information.

MR. ALAN SMALL
Troubled For Years
With Indigestion

Mr. Allan Small of 607 Greene Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I have always lived in fear of heart trouble—my father, as well as my mother's sister, died from this dreaded affliction when I was a child. As it was on both sides of my family and I had often heard it was hereditary, I lived in dread and fear."

"As I have had at intervals severe abdominal pains, heart-burn and pressure on the heart, I felt there was no relief so I became reconciled to the horrible truth I was doomed, nothing could be done and must await my time to go as my father and mother's sister."

"I never dreamed I might only have intestinal indigestion, and my trouble was sour and acid stomach, causing gas pressure on the heart. Thanks to a friend who suggested Carter's Little Liver Pills as a remedy for faulty intestinal elimination, I am now free from the dreaded fear and all around good health. So I can say to those who are suffering from a rational way, we can have 'heart' effects."

"If you feel that your kidneys are the cause of your sickness or run-down condition, begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the famous kidney, liver and bladder medicine, because as soon as your kidneys are well, they will help the other organs to health."

"If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular medium and large size bottles at all drug stores. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., which you will find on every bottle."

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands of Men and Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are among the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patients, who usually content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease constantly undermines the system.

Weak kidneys may cause lumbago, rheumatism, edema of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints or muscles, at times have headache or indigestion, as time passes you may have a salacious complexion, puffiness of the face, dark circles under the eyes, sometimes feel as though you had heart trouble, may have plenty of ambition but no strength, get weak and lose flesh.

If such conditions are permitted to continue, serious results are sure to follow: Kidney Trouble in its very worst form may steal upon you.

If you feel that your kidneys are the cause of your sickness or run-down condition, begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the famous kidney, liver and bladder medicine, because as soon as your kidneys are well, they will help the other organs to health.

BROADWAY TO SHOW
"ABRAHAM LINCOLN"

What is conceded to be one of the most interesting and valuable motion pictures ever made, "Abraham Lincoln," has been booked by the Broadway Theatre for showing next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

This assures the presentation of this most valuable historical and dramatic film in this city at the same time as in at least 5,000 other of the most important theatres of the United States and Canada.

"Abraham Lincoln" is in keeping with productions of only the highest grade, according to the announcement of Richard Rowland, production manager for First National Pictures, the organization handling it.

"Abraham Lincoln" was more than two years in the making, and at times as many as 2,500 people appear in the cast. It deals with the life of Lincoln from his birth, through his boyhood to manhood, and unfolds his romance with Anne Rutledge, carries him through the presidency and the strife of the Civil War.

George Billings portrays the role of Lincoln, with Ruth Clifford as Anne Rutledge and Neil Craig as Mrs. Lincoln. These are the principal figures in a remarkably fine cast.

"Abraham Lincoln" was directed by Phil Rosen. Frances Marion wrote the scenario and supervised the editing. The completed production has been hailed by critics wherever shown as an historical and artistic masterpiece.

In support of his contention, the Premier instanced Japan's limited pre-war trade with Russia and the present Soviet economic system, which he declared, was detrimental to trade.

Pneumonic Plague.

The papers report a localized epidemic of pneumonic plague in Los Angeles. At the time of writing this fourteen deaths have been reported. It is confined to the Mexican quarter. The first case was a Mexican woman who died on Oct. 19, four days after being taken sick with what at first appeared to be ordinary pneumonia. Four days after the death of the first patient and eight days after the onset of the first illness other cases began appearing among the family and close friends of the lady first attacked. The newspaper reports suggest that the secondary cases were infected at the funeral of the first case. The probability is that most of the infection occurred as result of visiting the sick woman, rather than attending her funeral.

Pneumonic plague is not a new disease. Omitting references to historical outbreaks, the outstanding epidemic in this century was that in Manchuria in 1910-1911. In 1919 there was an outbreak in Berkeley, Calif., which has all the earmarks of the present trouble. An Italian got infected while hunting. He had the bubonic form of plague. The disease spread to his family. Members of his family contracted the disease in its pneumonic form. It spreads to several who visited the sick. When his nature was recognized and strict control was established the outbreak was speedily controlled. The same course will be followed at Los Angeles. The efficient health department will clamp on the works, and probably before this article appears in print the epidemic will have become a memory.

In the Berkeley outbreak the prediction was made that similar outbreaks would occur elsewhere in the United States. They even went so far as to suggest that such an outbreak might occur in Chicago. New York, or in some other far away place. Strict precautions against rats and other rodents, fleas, against dirt, and against contact with the infected sick will bring the danger under control. Until we know more than we know now it is safer not to allow public funerals. Possibly in time we may find dust harmless. But in Manchuria inhalation of infected dust was thought to be a factor. At least to the present, dust control seems to be worth while.

Since 1900 there has been some plague among the rodents of California. Nearly twenty years ago Los Angeles had its first case of human plague. Dr. L. M. Powers found a case in a boy living near the railroad freight yards. The boy had been infected while hunting. Presumably the infection had been brought south by a rat in a freight car. Just how plague came to be implanted in California is an old story and need not again be reviewed.

Pneumonic plague is due to the bacillus which causes bubonic plague. These little epidemics are merely buldings out of the reservoir of ordinary plague. The two outstanding lessons of these outbreaks are these. First, epidemics of pneumonic plague are easily controlled. Second, so long as there have a reservoir of plague in the country local outbreaks of pneumonic plague are likely to occur.

"Don't Sneeze On Me."

R. McK. writes: Picture a bank teller's inconspicuous cage, two men within, one with a heavy cold, sneezing frequently, spraying the other with his nose. The other seemingly not minding it at all. Won't you print a moral, please?

REPLY: The situation described is a dangerous one. My prophesy is that within a decade both law and public opinion will forbid such practices.

Among the sneeze slogans in use are, "Don't sneeze on me," "Smother your sneezes," "Sneeze in your handkerchief."

Wants To Lose Scars.

Mrs. C. E. P. writes: I have two very ugly scars caused from an operation. There is quite a bumpy ridge caused from the incision. I would like very much to improve this condition, as it is very noticeable and causes a ray, but doesn't offer any suggestion as to how this can be helped.

REPLY: Have you considered having the scar removed by operation? This can be done in many cases.

INDIGNANT OVER ATTACK MADE ON STACK'S LIFE

Papers Comment Severely and Demand Prompt Action by Egypt

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The attempt in Cairo upon the life of Sir Lee Stack, ruler of the Egyptian army, has aroused great indignation here and most of the morning newspapers comment severely, demanding that the government take prompt decisive action.

While the Premier Zagloul Pasha and the Egyptian government are acquitted of having desired, much less prompted, the outrage, it is contended that they were to a great extent morally responsible by their alleged fostering of extremism and hostility to the British.

The Aimes says the Egyptian government must be taught that its practice of "banding to the extremists for political advantage" can not be tolerated. The paper continues:

"This is no case for a leisurely exchange of diplomatic notes; it is a case for immediate and energetic action. Such action was effective in the Sudan and the Egyptian government will be expected to act at least as promptly and firmly as did Mr. MacDonald's government."

Some of the other papers demand that the British government withdraw some or all of the concessions made to Egypt. Even the liberal organs, which comment less drastically, treat the incident as grave and call upon Zagloul Pasha imperatively to suppress the terrorism.

PASSES GOOD NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

CARRO, Egypt, Nov. 20.—Major General Sir Lee Stack, the sirdar of the Egyptian army, was wounded by assassins yesterday, passed a good night and there was some improvement noted, but his condition this morning was still very serious.

Six or eight gunmen, using both bombs and automatic pistols, were concerned in the attack and the sirdar was struck by three bullets. After an operation for transfusion of blood last night the surgeons expressed hope for his recovery.

The Egyptian premier, Zagloul Pasha, in a statement to newspapers declared the government would take every possible step to solve the mystery of the crime and to capture the assassins.

"The outrage," he continued, "will cause a very bad impression with everyone everywhere. I deplore this crime. I do not know to what end the criminals are acting or to what they belong, but I am convinced that it is their duty to disturb the peace of the country. They shall not attain their end."

TO QUESTION RELATIVES OF DEAD WOMAN

Prosecutor Sticks to Murder Theory in Deaf of Minister's Wife

(By The Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 20.—In a determined effort to piece together all the loose threads in the domestic life of Mrs. Abbie Sheatsley, wife of Rev. C. V. Sheatsley, pastor of one of the leading churches of the fashionable Bexley suburb whose cremated body was found in the furnace of the Sheatsley home Monday evening, so that it might be ascertained whether the mystery of her death is finally to be established as suicide or murder, County Prosecutor John R. King carried his investigation today in the circle of the dead woman's blood relatives.

Accompanied by City Detective Harry Carson, Mr. King left early today for Paris, home of Mrs. Sheatsley's mother, near Canton, to go over with the aged mother the life history of the daughter from infancy down through the intervening years to her marriage with the Rev. Mr. Sheatsley and the domestic relations in the Sheatsley home up to the time of the daughter's tragic death. The aged mother made her home with her daughter for several years up until about a year ago.

By getting the life history of Mrs. Sheatsley, Prosecutor King hopes to be able to strengthen or temporarily prove the theory he has clung to in the case since her death. Mr. King, notwithstanding the coroner's theory of suicide, maintains that Mrs. Sheatsley was a victim of foul play, that it would have been impossible for her to enter her furnace with a bed of live coals in it and close the door behind her. While at Paris, Mr. King also expects to question brothers of the dead woman.

Two days of investigation by County Prosecutor King, aided by city detectives, has resulted in no clue, the prosecutor announced.

SYDNOR GOES ON TRIAL TODAY FOR KILLING WIFE

(By The Associated Press)

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 20.—Walter J. Sydnor, 48, who was to go on trial in Hustings court here today for the murder of his 23-year-old bride, Mrs. Violet Worley Sydnor, whose body was found on June 17th last in the city dock, a commission appointed by Judge D. C. Richardson soon after the crime declared Sydnor was not insane, and defense counsel will center their efforts on having an alleged confession by the prisoner ruled out as inadmissible evidence.

At the same time commonwealth's counsel will fight for introduction of the statement in which they said Sydnor admitted beating his wife on the head with a heavy wrench and then throwing her body into the James river. The woman was killed on June 11, they contend, soon after she left the home of her parents to meet Sydnor downtown to discuss plans for a separation. The authorities also aver that the woman was Sydnor's third wife and that he has an undivorced wife living here.

Sydnor was arrested in Alexandria several days after the finding of the body. Mrs. Violet Worley Sydnor was married to Sydnor in High Point, N. C., on April 4, just two months before the body of the woman was found in the river here. She is alleged to have told her parents that she was going to leave her husband because she found he had another wife living here.

Sydnor, the police quoted him, said he became incensed at his wife because he believed she had "fitted."

Abandon Stand After Promise of Co-Operation In Promoting Settlement

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 20.—The waters of the Los Angeles aqueduct, diverted into the Owens lake last Sunday by a raiding party of Owens valley ranchers, who seized and opened the Alabama waste gates north of Lone Pine, Inyo county, were turned back into their course by the raiding party early today, said a dispatch to the Los Angeles Times.

The ranchers' decision to abandon their announced determination to hold the gates open until state troops were sent or Los Angeles came to the terms, was reached at a conference of leaders held at Keeler, on the shores of Owens lake, during the night. It was reported that the Times dispatch as a direct result of the resolution adopted last Tuesday by the Los Angeles clearing house association promising its cooperation in promoting a settlement of the water rights feud, providing the gates were closed.

High Blood Pressure Very Dangerous Affliction

Physician Tells What To Do. Don't neglect to give prompt attention to the first sign that indicates you have high blood pressure for it is the principle cause of apoplexy and many sudden deaths. Insurance companies report that the numbers of those afflicted with this dangerous condition are increasing at an alarming rate.

High blood pressure first shows its effects in dizziness, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath on exertion, ringing in the ears and frequent headaches. And when the heart becomes overtaxed because of the pressure that clogs the blood vessels to the bursting point there is danger of apoplexy and sudden death.

The best thing to do if you experience any of these symptoms is to place your blood pressure in a high position. A noted doctor's prescription Bi-Lin exerts a quick cleansing action on the arteries that are the real cause for high blood pressure. You feel better at once. Bi-Lin is harmless, easy to take and can be had at McFall's Drug Store and druggists everywhere.—adv.

CHATHAM WOMAN NAMED BY U. D. C. CONVENTION TO SUCCEED MRS. ROSS

Mrs. W. C. R. Merchant Elected Second Vice-President-General—Other Officers Returned—To Meet Next Year at Hot Springs.

(By The Associated Press)

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 20.—All present officers with one exception were reelected, and Hot Springs, Arkansas, selected as the 1925 convention city by the United Daughters of the Confederacy in session here today.

The name of Mrs. W. C. R. Merchant, Fort Worth, Texas, mentioned in connection with the office of second vice-president-general was not put in nomination.

Mrs. Bounds is not attending the convention and her friends said they had not been authorized to offer her name.

Mrs. W. C. N. Merchant, Chatham, Va., was elected without opposition second vice-president-general, to succeed Mrs. Frank Elmer Ross, San Diego, California, who already had served two terms and was not eligible for re-nomination.

(By The Associated Press) SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 20.—Election of officers, selection of next year's convention city and consideration of the educational committee's report, in which the establishment of a Woodrow Wilson scholarship at the University of Virginia is recommended, were before the United Daughters of the Confederacy today.

Under a long established custom in the organization, all the officers headed by Mrs. Frank Harold, American, Ga., president general, elected at the Washington convention, last year for their first terms, were slated for re-election without opposition.

Mrs. Frank Elmer Ross, San Diego, Calif., second vice-president general, was the only officer not eligible for re-election. She also has been elected to her second term, expiring this year, and her office therefore, was thrown open for nominations for a successor.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Los Angeles, Calif., and Hot Springs, Ark., formally extended their invitations for the 1925 convention at yesterday's session. For the first time in many years, the representatives of cities bidding for conventions were not allowed time to outline the advantages and attractions of their respective cities. The convention was behind with its business an allotted each of the three delegates to one minute.

The proposal for the establishment of the Wilson scholarship at the University of Virginia approved by the executive board early today, called for an annual fund of $500 to $800. Mrs. Stevens said. In starting, the committee would raise $12,000 for the fund and this would be used as a nucleus from which to endow for a Wilson chair at the University.

Princeton university was considered to the scholarship, but the committee voted in favor of Virginia, it was stated.

GERMANS TAKE UP MOTORCYCLES

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—While the automobile in Germany falls very far short of the per capita of population number registered in the United States, the motorcycle is popular and increasing numerically rapidly. The total doubled between 1921 and 1923. There are now more than 50,000 such machines of 2 1-2 horse power, and 100,000,000 equipped with lower powered engines.

$26,000 AND THREE DAYS TO GO

The Community Chest Campaign has entered its most trying stages and the real test of ability to crown the undertaking with success is here. The half-way post has been passed and with three days remaining slightly more than $26,000, or 43 per cent. of the total budgets of the nine organizations has to be raised. The field is by no means exhausted and continuation of that devotion to service which has been shown by those enlisted in the campaign gives promise of success, and a notable achievement in community history. This is no time to be discouraged but rather for the redoubting of determination and energy in carrying out the carefully planned scheme of the campaign. Only last week we had an example of what an indomitable purpose to succeed means. Danville women who launched their Red Cross appeal were mortified when within the time limit of that campaign less than half the quota of members had been secured. It was the redoubting of energy which brought up the response within two days and while the roll called failed to measure up to the anticipated response, it almost reached the objective. This is cited simply as an example of what determination will do.

It is prudent, we believe, to point out at this time that no fund is being retained in reserve to swell the coffers during the closing days of the Community Chest campaign. There is an erroneous impression that a report has not been made on subscriptions solicited quietly before the active campaign opened. We have been assured from authoritative quarters that all that has been pledged has been reported. In other words the cold figures reported from day to day reveal the actual status of the fund. Prospective donors had others who have not given should not be deluded nor continue in the belief that there is a "rescue fund" in abeyance. The simple truth is that $26,000 remains to be secured by Saturday and unless it is secured, Danville, new leading Richmond, Roanoke and Norfolk in the relative sum secured will have to admit defeat. Worse than that, however, it will mean revision of the budgets of the participating organizations and an apportionment below their minimum amounts which will reduce their efficiency in carrying on their work.

Mr. Booth yesterday dealt frankly with the criticism which is heard every year concerning the retention of a foreign corporation to stage the Community Chest campaign. The amount being paid to the American City Bureau of Chicago, is $1,500, the smallest amount ever paid to any organization brought here for that purpose. Three years ago, as we recall it, the sum paid for the conduct of the undertaking was three thousand dollars. Without the services of some organization versed in the technique of conducting such community appeals as this a gross failure might well be expected. It is safe to presume that business men of Danville who are no small sacrifice are turning aside from their own business to make the canvass would be unable to devote the time necessary in preliminary work. Staging a campaign consists of something more than listing prospects and then going and asking them for money. For three weeks workers of the paid organization have been engaged in preparatory work and getting ready for that phase of the campaign which is now in progress. The task of organization is no light one as the critics doubtless would find if they were to

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS.

Every Day

Every day means more than any day. It's what we store up, what we accumulate and make a living and lasting part of what we are that gives our measure to the world. Every day is the most important place or thing to create new ideas and formulate new plans.

It is what a man has been doing every day that makes him stand out as a particular person on any day.

Study the life of any man and you will learn that he has been made great by his every days.

Nothing worthwhile ever comes at a single bound.

The progress may seem very small at the end of each day but when you take the sum of the days you have something that is substantial.

And every day sometimes seems rather relentless—where you have failed to live up to your best or neglected to do the simple things that meant your happiness and growth.

The greatest school in the world is the School-of-The Every Day.

If you try to make every day a happy, successful one it doesn't take long to bring about a condition where you are felt as a force no matter where you go.

Every day is life. And in every day may be found all the beauties and treasures of which life is made. But you have to hunt them out every day and you have to appreciate them every day.

Every day is really right now.

THE AIRCAB HAS ARRIVED

A New York automobile importer is reported to have ordered 100 airplanes designed and made in France, that will alight either on land or water. He claims that a Wall Street firm has placed orders for several, to form an aerial taxi service for financiers and business men who live in the suburbs, and for trips to Washington, Philadelphia, Boston and other nearby cities.

These air taxis are geared to travel 100 miles an hour, will carry five passengers, and at a rate on a par with that now charged by the Yellow taxi.

Of course there will be more or less risk and danger, just as there was risk and danger traveling behind the first railroad locomotive or on the first steamboat, but all that is a simple matter of development. This is an age of speed—and the auto, in cities, is admittedly slow, cumbersome and overdone. The air is the only place remaining for real comfort, and the aircab seems to be the real thing.

OF INTEREST TO MERCHANTS

In a suit brought by the Federal Trade Commission against the National Biscuit Company, the Supreme Court of the United States holds that the granting by a manufacturer of special discounts on large purchases of goods by chain stores, which discounts were not allowed to co-operative associations or individual retailers, is not a violation of the anti-trust laws.

This decision is not only far-reaching in effect, but is of great importance to all merchants, because it practically compels them to "get together."

It was shown that the special discounts enable chain stores to sell at a lower price or make a larger profit, which constituted an unfair practice under the law and the Federal Trade Commission so ruled. The Biscuit Company appealed and the Supreme Court has decided that the manufacturer was justified in discriminating between two classes of buyers.

While this decision affects hundreds of thousands of individual merchants in all parts of the country, it forms a precedent for other lines that may be even more disastrous to individual enterprises, and practically wipes out the most important clause of the "fair-dealing" act of Congress.

The decision is undoubtedly based upon the law governing the case, but as the Standard Oil Company once declared, "It is bad law," and will probably result in legislation classified as "radical" in big business circles.

Ten Little Toes

Ten little toes, ten little toes,
Where they must travel to nobody knows.
Tiny and tender now,
Lovely and slender now,
Sweet and as pink as the buds of a rose.

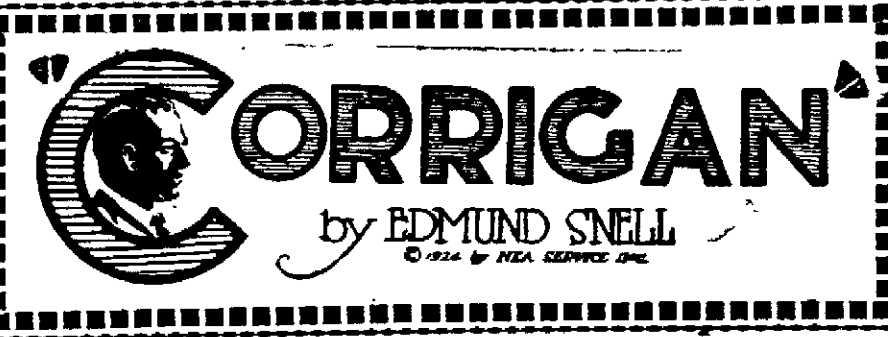

Ten little toes, ten little toes,
Now to the market this little pig goes;
And your old daddy is Thinking how glad he is Singing the old rhyme which every one knows.

Ten little toes, ten little toes,
Pearls of perfection in two little rows.
Glistening and shiny
And lovely and tiny
Sweet is the laughter whenever dad blows.

Ten little toes, ten little toes,
Made for the green grass and made for the snows;
This is my prayer for you,
This is my care for you,
Smooth be your path to the long journey's close.

The Beginning of a Beautiful Friendship

I—CORRIGAN'S WAY

The little coasting-steamers, Haufah, Dutch owned, made leisurely for the patch of green which showed on the horizon like a jade in a sea of lapis-lazuli. The first mate a truculent brigand in dirty whites and canvass shoes broken at the sides, was getting a motley collection of dark-skinned natives below hatches; protesting Malays with strange bundles; Japanese girls, broad-faced and giggling; Chinese coolies some with flimsy boxes resembling violent cases, others with nothing at all, because they had gambled away everything they had started with except a strip of rag at the loins; a tall Sikh with curling beard and effeminate swagger; Tamils, coal-black and wearing gold ornaments in their lips, noses and ears; chattering like a monkey colony clutching their entire worldly possessions, they swarmed below decks to remain wedged like sweltering sardines, until the vessel chose to put to sea again. The Dutch mate, the stump of a black cheerer stuck in the corner of that great mouth, hastened their movements with none too delicate prods of an iron bar.

The captain, broad and bearded, his white-topped cap cocked over one eye, his arms over-long, like a giant ape, thumped his great chest until it resounded like a drum. "Corrigan's my name," put in the other calmly. "When I see a man hit a woman, black or white, the bridge, for he stopped and picked up the bar, and Corrigan hit him again."

The skipper, his eyes ablaze, confronted the master with the situation. "What does this mean?" he demanded in very good English. Corrigan, square-jawed and clean-shaven rose to his full height. He stood like a colossus, his hands resting easily on his hips, between the fat mate holding his bruised jaw and the Dutch girl, the white man's handkerchief knotted round her head, on which showed an ever-increasing patch of blood.

"I regret having to interfere with the discipline of your ship, Captain Lemburg," he said, "but to a humane man the situation explains itself."

Scoop's Colyum

DRAKES BRANCH, Nov. 20.—(Grapevine Wire)—The village concert had gone along swimmingly up to a point. But about half-way through the second part of the programme, Miss Freacher, announced on the programme as a mezzo-soprano, rose to oblige with "Where Have The Old Songs Gone To?"

Just as she concluded the first touching verse a loud voice from the back of the hall was heard to remark: "Blinkin' idiot."

The vicar, who was presiding, looked most indignant at this term being used in connection with the lady in question, and, rising to his feet, he announced:

"I shall not allow this concert to proceed until I know who called the singer a blinkin' idiot."

"Taint no use, vicar," came the same voice at once. "We ain't a-botherin' abah' 'oo called the singer a blinkin' idiot, but 'oo called the blinkin' idiot a singer."

Anyway, business appears to go on as usual at the postoffice.

The sun has set on the third day of the Community Chest drive and we are making splendid progress, but the further we go the harder the pull, so real, earnest work is needed to carry the banner to victory "over the top." Workers must not get discouraged but continue to "carry on" and we will SURELY WIN!

The class was having a lesson in botany, and the little dears sat with open mouths drinking in the words of their dear teacher. She explained to them exactly "when and why leaves change their color and all the children nodded their heads with great intelligence.

"Now," she asked the class as the lesson drew to an end, "when," do leaves turn red?"

"In the autumn," came the reply, in chorus.

"And why do leaves turn red in autumn?" she pursued.

There was silence for a time, and then a small voice was heard from the back of the class.

"Please, miss, they're blushing to think how green they've been all the summer."

Father: "So you propose to take my daughter from me without any warning?"

Nervous Young Man: "Not at all. If there is anything concerning her you want to warn me about, I'm willing to listen."

First Flapper: "John tried to kiss me last night and I wouldn't let him."

Second Ditto: "Did it make him angry?"

First Flapper: "I should say so! He said he wished he had called on you!"

They had had one of their usual tiffs because hubby was home late for dinner.

"You're always late," she said indignantly. "You were late at the church the day we were married."

"Yes," he answered bitterly, "but I wasn't late enough."

"Look here," said one irate clubman to another, "did you say my wife had a little like a but-ter?"

"I did," answered the other. "What about it?"

"Take off your coat," shouted the irate one. "Nobody's going to say things against that dog and get away with it!"

"And you tell me several men proposed marriage to you?" he said, savagely.

"Yes, several," the wife replied. "Well, I wish you had married the first fellow who proposed."

"I did."

ONCE GREAT FOOTBALL STARS TO PLAY AGAIN

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 13.—A football game between Atlanta and Memphis in which a score of well known college players will play, was announced today to be played in Atlanta the second week in December, the proceeds to go to Charity.

The Memphis team will be an all-star aggregation it was announced and will be captained by "Memphis Bill" Mallory, former Yale captain and all-America fullback.

Joe Bennett, all-Southern tackle and captain at Georgia, will be captain of the Atlanta team. Others who will play with Atlanta, according to Mallory, are:

A man in Alabama who may think it is hereditary has adopted the family of a late moonshiner.

Corrigan came to the first-class deck, slipping something into his pocket, and disappeared into the cool nesses of the corridor in search of a clean handkerchief. Orene Matheson met him at the door of her cabin. The turn of the tide had been whistling broke off abruptly at the sight of her. His face assumed that mask-like expression it had worn throughout the trip. Mrs. Matheson hesitated.

Mr. Corrigan, she said, the words forming themselves with an effort.

"Hullo?" He started as if something had struck him, as if the sound of a woman's voice jarred on his nerves.

"Oh—I just wanted to say—to thank you—for what you did. I think it was absolutely splendid."

"Oh!—That!" He relaxed somewhat and faced her squarely. "I've been so wrapped up in myself, you know, that I forgot for the moment you were there. Women have not treated me too kindly in this world; I suppose I've been out in the wilds too long. I've lost polish—and we men haven't a lot of use for the unfinished article. But, there are some things I can't stand—and that was one of 'em."

"I know," said Mrs. Matheson sympathetically. "Perhaps some women are exacting, but there are times, Mr. Corrigan, when they look round for a man; times when there are wrongs that only a real man can right. I wanted you to hit that man."

Corrigan gasped.

"You wanted me to?" he stammered. "I've forgotten a lot of things in these weary years, Mrs. Matheson; but I sort of remembered when I was half way through with it, that I was guilty of a breach of etiquette; I felt I was doing something that is not done. I mean, I suppose I ought to have checked my primitive impulses."

Irene Matheson flushed. Unwillingly she found herself comparing this man with the husband she was going back to.

"The primitive woman in me called aloud for all that was primitive in man," she said simply. "And found it. I'm infinitely grateful to you, Mr. Corrigan." She held out her slim hand and Corrigan, stepping forward impetuously, took it in his brown paw.

"Are you going ashore?" he inquired, letting his blue eyes rest for a moment on hers.

"If you will take me," she replied, looking down.

He found her ten minutes later, taking the brown girl on the forecastle that a paper parcel had appeared from some where, and the scarcely anxious up breeze which blew from the shore brought to him the unmistakable scent of Eau de Cologne.

They crossed the gangway together on to the somewhat rickety landing-stage. He called back to a stooping figure on the ship's deck: "How long we go here?"

"Twenty four hours, at least, sir," was the reply.

"Thanks."

The first mate looked up. He shook his head beyond a group of prosperous Chinese merchants when his feet at them and swore venomously. Presently he aimed a kick at a native hand, he clapped and heared heartily at himself. He surveyed an enormous watch with a rusted nickel case and a cracked dial on which the sun and moon played an important part. He stuffed it back in his pocket and looked anxiously up the bridge.

The skipper was engaged in earnest conversation with the Chinese supercargo.

APPROACHING CLIMAX IN FOOTBALL IS AROUSING INTENSE INTEREST NOW

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Reports from western conference training camps have not effected the intense under-graduate and public interest this week in Saturday's closing games of the season. From the rout in reports practice from the ten institutions, it has been realized that the season has extended to a climax. The four of the eleven battles have been although three of the four have been substitutes for Bad-ger. The information from the University of Chicago preparation for the game would permit the Maroons and lead claim to the cham-

Scrimmage against the freshmen who filled the air with passes from Ohio State formations covered the situation at the University of Illinois, which still had hope of a conference championship despite the Chicago tie and the Minnesota reverse. Iowa and Michigan reports of fear each other told the story of the other two championship aspirants. They play each other, and either could claim a hold on the title by winning it, at the same time, something happened to Chicago. Above it all, however, soared the speculations and hopes of thousands of football-fans who will trek to the various gridirons to ring down the curtain in the proverbial blaze of glory on one of the big tens' most unusual seasons. Tod Rockwell, Michigan's quarter, has an opportunity to end his conference football career as the leading point scorer since the leading Orange of Illinois, who leads him by one point, is out of the season with an injured shoulder. Rockwell has 77 points to his credit. Minnesota has the football honors of the north in its hands as it grooms for Vanderbilt of Nashville, Tenn.

"Lefty" Groves Has Long List of Strikeouts

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—"Lefty" Groves, recently purchased by Connie Mack from Baltimore for more money than there is in the United States mint, had unique experience in his professional debut. Pitching in a small minor league, he walked 16 men in his first game. Not so good.

The next day he came back for another trial. Instead of a parade to first base as in the first game, the march was to the bench. He struck out 23.

Since joining the Baltimore Orioles, Groves has kept up his strikeout habit. In four years he has struck out 1105 International League.

Groves best year was in 1923. He started the season by fanning 17 batters. Since then, his total strikeouts for the year was 330.

Engagement List Keeps Harris Busy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—"Bucky" Harris, manager of the world champion Senators, has demonstrated his ability to keep a baseball team in pretty good shape but his lengthening engagement list, now that he has become a national figure, is giving him trouble.

He and today that he had consented to dine her tomorrow night as the guest of the Pennsylvania society, and put in an appearance at the same time as an extra added attraction at a basketball game in Rochester. Since neither function could be postponed, he decided on a fifty-fifty division of his time.

He finally decided after years of endless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians made experiments and finally compounded a prescription on that basis, and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery which he called Allenhu, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenhu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.

McFall's Drug Store is my appointed agent in your city. If you live out of town I'll gladly send you free particulars.—adv.

NOTE: (MAYBE IT'S JUST THE OPPOSITE.)

When the Santa Ana (Calif.) high school eleven plays, there is one player always in a white sweater. That one is Elliott Best and he wears the white sweater so that the coach knows him from his brother, Edward Best. How else could he tell? Yes, the Best boys are twins.

GIVE BLOOD TO PAY WAY THRU SCHOOL

Energetic Football Stars Sell Blood at $100 Per Quart for Transfusions

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 20.—Legion are the jobs by which students at Universities throughout the country seek to pay the expenses of their education, but three Brown students, rugged football stars, have solved the most startling "get-rich-quick" scheme ever devised by a needy undergraduate.

Adolph W. Eckstein, mighty center of the football team and captain of Bruin wrestlers this year, first devised the idea. A candidate this fall for the all-eastern gridiron honors, he has made it the unconventional vogue for Brown athletes to barter their life's blood for gold.

Today he has sacrificed a pint of his blood since the 1924 football season began in October. Yet his playing in the Bruin line has been topnotch all season. Last year he sold a quart of the precious fluid for $100, later trading a pint for half that sum.

Seeing the success of his example, two other football stars at Brown found that the Bruin line was equally in demand have followed suit and have disposed of a pint a piece at the market price.

The trio of brawny youths, Eckstein, Ed Eckstein, and Thomas Johnson of Philadelphia, and Thomas Johnson of Lansford, Pa., all seniors, together sold five pints of their blood for a total of $250, during the gridiron season last fall.

Dish-washing, waiting on tables, tending furnaces and other employment of a similar nature takes a lot of time and is not particularly remunerative considering the amount of blood involved, according to the three pioneers of a new "self-help" era in university life.

If you are a healthy young animal, whose blood tests to the rigorous standard demanded in the delicate operation of a football team, you have a chance on a sporting proposition, they ask, pointing out that Eckstein, despite the fact that he had undergone a transfusion operation only a short time before the Yale-Brown game, was credited with a display as Captain Lovejoy of the Blue, all-American choice for the position last year.

Four apices of blood are found in the human body, type four, large quantities of which are kept on hand in field hospitals for emergency cases during the world war, is known as "universal blood." And it is this coveted type which flows in the veins of Brown's three daring gridirers. Blood of this type is suitable for all transfusion operations, whereas blood of the three remaining types may only be used in instances where it is synonymous with the life fluid flowing in the veins of the patient receiving the transfusion.

The person giving the blood will recuperate to normal physical strength within 18 to 24 hours following the operation, doctored men declare that from three to four days is required for the donor's blood to make a new exhausted corpuscles.

AIR BICYCLE NEW INVENTION

Self Propelled Plane Is Latest—Requires Little Effort

BY O. D. TOLICHUS

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—An air-bicycle which enable man to fly with less effort than required for walking is seen near at hand as the result of the invention of a new propeller which it is claimed dispenses with the airplane motor and can be run by man power alone.

The inventor is Major Pilschke, of Vienna. His propeller is called a "wing propeller," the wings being supposed to vibrate and grip the air much more effectively than the rotating blade propeller.

The propeller is being tried out on a motor boat at Vienna and shows effectiveness in water which is too shallow for regular propellers or wheels.

A German consortium has been formed with a capital of 1,000,000 gold marks for mass production of motor boats and airplanes equipped with the new propellers.

For the Game's Sake

By LAWRENCE PERRY

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)
NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—If Harvard should succumb to Yale this Saturday it is not at all likely that Robert Fisher will remain at Cambridge as head coach. Fisher is a man of fine personality and is a competent football instructor.

Despite the fact that the material he has had to handle in recent years has not in any way lamed him with the sort of players that the Crimson found available in the Haughton regime, the deadly parallel between Fisher and Haughton elevens has been drawn with ever increasing frequency.

The Princeton debacle seems to have brought dissatisfaction to a point and a sound beating by Yale will accentuate this state of mind, if that is possible.

Percy Wendell, who played at Harvard under Haughton and has been doing well at Williams, is the one name mentioned as successor to Fisher.

Toner says he will remain at Princeton if the Princeton athletic authorities invite him to stay. As it is foregone that such an invitation will be extended no coaching change at Princeton may be expected.

That William Alexander will depart from Georgia Tech is idle. Alexander is working along the right road and with the assistance of Hanson (Illinois) as line coach, may be depended upon to keep the Yellow Jackets in the top flight of Southern teams year after year. Alexander has the solid backing of the most influential men in Atlanta.

But at Wisconsin friends of Jack Ryan may have a fight on their hands to keep him from leaving. Ryan is a sure spot since 1914. He is qualified, the writer believes, to produce satisfactory results. It would be going far to say that this year's eleven has been responsive to its coach. The fact is that the writer is unable to say, but it might be the part of wisdom for Wisconsin alumni to look beyond the coaching problem, when the time comes to consider the ins and outs of the football situation.

Football coaching at Wisconsin has been a sure spot since 1914. Bill Juneau fizzled as a coach after John Richards retired in 1911. Juneau was forced out in 1915, and the following year at Washington came to Madison with a team of All-Americans. He failed utterly.

Next Richards, a Badger alumnus was called back and for five years turned out eleven that came within aces of winning the conference championship but never quite connected.

When Richards, who is wealthy and fond of travel, found it impossible to spend needed time in working with the team at Madison. So he retired and Ryan came.

Chicago alumni of Wisconsin have the feeling that Ryan is not the man to lead the Badgers to the fore and this feeling has gained materially in strength since the Notre Dame game. The Georgia eleven certainly has a contract on its hands. On Thanksgiving the Bull Dogs play a game at Birmingham and the Southern conference championship. Then two days later she plays Centre at Danville. Ky. Should Georgia defeat the Crimson at Birmingham the game with Centre will decide the all-Southern championship.

Centre impressed Southern critics at Birmingham last Saturday as a really great eleven. A keen southern observer sends word to the writer that Alabama was overconfident against Centre and had no business to be so confident before he scheduled up to that—Georgia Tech excepted—had been comparatively an easy one.

GRETTA

GRETTA, Va., Nov. 19.—J. W. Payne died at his home near the corporate limits of Gretna Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock and was buried at his home this afternoon. He had been confined to his bed for several weeks, and his death was not unexpected. Deceased was a steward of Anderson Memorial M. E. church and was 67 years old. He is survived by his wife and two children, T. J. Payne, who is connected with the Southern railway depot here, and Mrs. Grover Jennings, of Campbell county.

Many Gretna citizens attended the burial of Mrs. Frank Wooding at the old Wesleyan cemetery near Chalk Level last Sunday. Mrs. Wooding, survived by her husband and three little girls; also by several brothers and sisters, nearly all of whom live in Texas. Only one sister, Mrs. Anderson of Atlanta, was able to attend the burial.

Many were very much surprised Tuesday morning when they arose from their slumbers and found the ground white with snow. This was the first snow of the season. Some of our older citizens are predicting a rough winter.

The Climax high school basketball team will play the Gretna High school team here Friday night, Nov. 21st.

Mrs. R. M. Shelton and grandson, Thomas McLaughlin, are visiting the former's son, Gordon Shelton, in Williams, W. Va.

Mrs. C. Carr, of New York, was the house guest of Mrs. I. W. Cobb last week.

The first quarterly conference on the Gretna charge, M. E. Church, South, with the new presiding elder, Dr. B. F. Lipscomb, of Lynchburg, presiding, was held at Anderson Memorial church in Gretna Tuesday.

Dr. Lipscomb preached a very interesting and helpful sermon, after which the small congregation enjoyed a lunch which was served by the ladies in the church. The business of the conference was attended to in the afternoon.

C. B. and W. C. Mattox attended a birthday dinner of their father and mother at the parental home Leesville, Va., last Sunday. They report an enjoyable day.

To Try Eight Men Today For Part In Killing of Woman

(By The Associated Press)

BUCHANAN, Ga., Nov. 20.—Judge P. A. Telford of the Tallapoosa circuit is scheduled to preside today at a preliminary hearing of the eight men held in connection with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Robert Stewart at Shalston on Thursday of last week.

Solicitor General E. S. Griffith of the Tallapoosa circuit will handle the prosecution and will claim that Mrs. Stewart was shot by several unidentified men who were attempting to abduct her. Rev. Robert Stewart, Methodist minister, because of his active work against lawlessness and liquor-making and selling.

Scared by Lion—No Lyin'

Sam never was so scared in all his life. Here he was, a modern Daniel in the lion's den, with old Nero right on top of him. But Nero, for some reason or other, didn't think much of Sam as food. Evidently he had just had plenty of dinner. Sam, though, surely put in a couple terrible minutes—they seemed like ages—until they opened the door and let him out. The picture was taken on the Gays Lion Farm at El Monte, Calif.

SATURDAY'S GAMES TO BE FOUGHT ON FROZEN FIELDS

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The final eastern football jousts in a season teeming with fervor will be fought on frozen fields Saturday where shivering thousands will offer their last opposition to the advance of winter.

Crippled Harvard will hobble into the Yale row bent upon kicking the fight out of the Bull Dog and will come into prominence when the contest starts.

The Cambridge plan appears to be a rushing attack in hope of rout, emptying the forward pass and then, if fate intervenes, a punting game which will keep the Blue away from the posts.

Yale also will turn to the forward pass which accomplished the defeat of Princeton and Scott, a clever kicker, will be ready to kick from any point within the Crimson territory. Yale should outrush Harvard and also outkick.

At Philadelphia eight men of the JOINT-EASE For Stiff, Swollen Joints Rheumatic or Otherwise

Says: "When Joint-Ease Gets In—Joint Agony Gets Out."

It was a high-class pharmacist who saw prescription after prescription fail to help hundreds of his customers to get rid of rheumatic swellings and stiff, inflamed joints.

And it was this same man who asserted that a remedy could and would be compounded that would make crummy rheumatism, torn joints, work with just as much smoothness as they ever did.

Now this prescription, rightly named Joint-Ease, after being tested successfully on many obstinate cases, is being offered through progressive pharmacists to the millions of people who suffer from ailing joints that need limbering-up.

Swollen, wining, inflamed, stiff, pain-tormented joints are usually caused by rheumatism, but whatever the cause Joint-Ease soaks right in through skin and flesh and gets right to and corrects the trouble at its source.

Remember Joint-Ease is for ailments of the joints, whether in ankle, knee, hip, elbow, shoulder, spine or forearm. It is for the joints, and you may expect speedy and gratifying results.

It is now on sale at McFall's and druggists everywhere for 60 cents a tube. Always remember, when Joint-Ease gets in joint agony gets out—quick.

Every rheumatic sufferer ought to see to it that he has "The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism" (just out.) Halliwell, P. Clearwater, box 300 Halliwell, Maine.—adv.

Night Coughing—How to Stop It

Night coughing which, through loss of valuable sleep, often makes you feel utterly worn-out and useless during the day, and by quickly weakening the system lays you open to the most dangerous infections, can now be promptly checked by a very simple treatment. People who have hardly been able to rest on account of coughing spells have found that they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed often after the very first trial.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals the soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which is the real cause of the cough. The result is that you usually sleep as soundly as a babe the very first night, and the cough goes in a very short time.

The prescription contains no opiates or harmful drugs. Excellent for children as well as grown-ups. For coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, sore throat, spasmodic cough, bronchitis, inflamed bronchial tubes. At all good druggists. Ask for

RHEUMATISM Leaves You Forever

So Says James H. Allen, Who Drove out Rheumatic Poisons After Being Crippled For Years.

Mr. James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided after years of endless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians made experiments and finally compounded a prescription on that basis, and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery which he called Allenhu, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers.

He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenhu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.

Cured His Rupture

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation. If you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter 255-L, Marcellus Avenue, Manassas, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.—adv.

THE NUT CRACKER

JOE WILLIAMS

Paris was not interested in the American baseball tourists. None of them had come over for a divorce.

Perhaps the chief reason why baseball flopped in Paris was that the ushers failed to give away picnic postcards with the program.

Playing made his mark as a pitcher. Walter Johnson is now determined to make his dollar mark as a manager.

Everett Scott is to be canned by the Yanks and the moral of that seems to be, "Don't work your dern head off."

His trainer says the hard tracks in America beat Ephraim. We know all along that the speed of Sarazen and Wise Counsellor had nothing to do with it.

Not the least unusual thing about yesterday was that it went into the records without seeing Floyd Johnson wallowed by some pork-and-beaner.

The original young genius who wrote about "Second Ty Cobb" in the spring is now running amuck in the sport pages with "Second Red Granges."

Walter Hagen and Cyril Walker are going to play for the world golf title in Florida. They ought to let Bobby Jones caddy for them at least.

A colored gent by the name of Showers was knocked out in Newark the other night. It is presumed he was caught in a rain of lefts and rights.

Let's see, wasn't it Judge Landis who said the baseball scandal would not close until the "culprits involved were dead in their graves?"

Connie Mack insists the mental standard in baseball are much higher than they used to be. We suppose all the credi goes to Bynessetter Reese.

There no longer need be doubt that the Irish are going back. One Mike O'Connor has just won a squash tennis championship.

D.M.I. vs Chatham
Here on Saturday

The local football feature for the week will be the game between the strong Chatham Training school eleven and the Danville Military Institute team to be played at 3 P. M. Saturday on the D. M. I. grounds. The cadet team finished its last game on even terms with opponents. It has developed in strength and efficiency and in team play with every game played and ought to be at the top of its season's form when it lines up against the formidable C. P. S. aggregation which has made a good record all season. While the odds probably will favor the Chatham team in the theoretical wagers and speculation as to the outcome, the many upsets in the gridiron game all over the country all season make the outcome of almost every game very doubtful.

A good crowd of the friends and adherents of the D. M. I. will do much to stimulate the team to its best endeavors.

D. M. I. in meeting Chatham here on Saturday is promising the fight of the season. In last Saturday's game against Randolph-Macon at Bedford, the team showed the greatest fight it has put up this year and the squad, from the captain to the last scrub, is determined to put out its best in this, the last game.

Randolph-Macon, played Chatham to a tie score some weeks ago, while the local cadet eleven has shown a sharp upward trend in recent weeks, and, if there is anything to be placed in "dope," the fight should be to the finish. Practice during the current week has been somewhat hampered by cold and unfavorable conditions on the field, but the spirit of the men is excellent, and the cadet body is supporting the team to a man. They, as well as the team, realize that a favorable score in this game will even a number of old scores and polish off edges for the year. "Pop meetings" will be held daily for the remainder of the week that all may be in the best of form to cheer the Tigers on in the battle.

Chatham, in turn, expects to bring her whole cadet corps to cheer Coach Towill's charges in the gridiron fight, and news from the Chatham camp indicates that strenuous activities are in progress.

Actual forecast as to the score is not made but D. M. I.—team, coaches and cadets—is promising its friends a struggle worth seeing when the Tigers take the field Saturday.

As the Danville High school team will be playing at South Boston on Saturday, the game at the D. M. I. grounds will be the big sport feature for the day and with favorable weather for spectators, which now seems in prospect there is a fine prospect of a large attendance.

Kidneys Need Lots Of Water at Times

If Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers
Also Take a Little Salt

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, sometimes get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally. Else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys and help stimulate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a deliciously effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—adv.

ANNUAL SERMON TO DOVE COMMANDERY

The annual sermon to the officers and members of Dove Commandery No. 7, Knights Templar, will be preached next Sunday at 11 A. M. in Calvary Methodist church, North Main street, by the Rev. Joseph S. Gresham, pastor of that church, by invitation of the commandery.

The asylum in Masonic Temple will be open to members after 10 A. M. in order that those having lockers there may secure their regalia. Thence they will go as individuals or in groups to the triangular plot near Clanton's drugstore, North Main street, where the ranks will form and the march to the church as a body will begin. An earnest appeal is being made by the officers for the attendance of every knight who can attend the service.

Dove Commandery has about 350 members, but a considerable proportion of these are scattered over various sections of Halifax, Pittsylvania, Henry and Patrick counties, and it is difficult for many of these to get to the city and attend the services. This will be the first time for a number of years that the commandery has held its annual religious services on the north side of the river.

BABE RUTH TELLS HOW

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 19.—Babe Ruth today began a week's career as an actor. He appears on the stage of Grauman's million dollar movie theatre four times daily, attired in his Yankee uniform, talks batting, demonstrates how he whales 'em, knocking autographed spheroids into an audience composed mainly of squealing females, and in company with three freckled bidders and an actor, pulls a few funny cracks. Babe is getting plenty of money for his appearance, the theatre manager stated, but he did not stipulate the sum.

Constipation is ruinous to children—
keep yours healthy with Kellogg's Bran

Constipation undermines a child's health. It saps his energy and makes him listless. It can lead to more than 40 other serious diseases. Mothers should take immediate steps to remove, safely and surely, the dangerous poisons from his system.

Kellogg's Bran—because it is ALL bran—brings permanent relief. Nothing but ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective. That is why Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is universally recommended by doctors. They know it brings results.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to give permanent relief in the most chronic cases of constipation, or your grocer returns your money. Kellogg's Bran acts on the intestines exactly as nature acts. It sweeps and cleans and purifies them. It makes them function naturally and regularly. It allows you to discontinue forever the use of harmful, habit-forming drugs and pills.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is a delightful surprise to the taste—particularly if one has tried ordinary unpalatable bran. Kellogg's Bran has a delicious, crisp, nut-like flavor—an exclusive flavor. It is most enjoyable with milk or cream, sprinkled over other cereals or cooked with hot cereals. Try it in bread, muffins, griddle cakes and other recipes given on every package.

Have your children eat it regularly—two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Kellogg's Bran is made at Battle Creek and sold at all grocers. It is served in individual packages by the leading hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant.

CLAIMS SUCCESS IN TUBERCULOSIS CURE
BY JOHN AHL-NOLSEN
COPENHAGEN, Nov. 20. — Interviewed by the correspondent today, Prof. Secher declared that the Sanocrysine, or gold cure, for tuberculosis had been used with great apparent success by him in treating different forms of tuberculosis in the new modern hospital in Copenhagen. He confessed, however, that it was impossible yet to give any final judgment, since time alone can demonstrate the eventual efficacy of the cure.

SIX NEGROES DROWN
(By The Associated Press)
NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 18. — Six negroes, three women and three men, were drowned in a Chinaman near West Point, just over the Virginia-North Carolina line Sunday night when an automobile in which they were riding went over a cliff and plunged into the water. All were residents of Suffolk, Va. There were no witnesses to the accident and nothing was known of it until one of the bodies was recovered, as all occupants of the car perished.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. — With refinements well supplied for immediate requirements and easier tendency in the spot raw situation, a generally easier tendency is probable.

MORNING STOCK LETTER
(Thomson & McKinnon)
NEW YORK, Nov. 20. — Assuming as we all do that we are entering a period of greater business, greater profits, more and greater dividends, what policy should we pursue in order to derive the most benefit from it? There are two ways that are pursued. One is the right way, the other the wrong way. One leads to profits, one to wasted effort. The surest way of getting out of step is to buy too much and buying on very high advanced prices may lead to a loss. You may not believe it but the higher you check the more severe the setback regardless of the position of the company. Just remember that the very extreme prices are not the result of anything that is done by the company but a business way but is the result of the rebuilding of the speculative pyramid and it does not matter much who the builder may be it falls just like the one that may be erected by an obscure and unknown trader.

As the new army of buyers press on for more stocks, sell them some of yours. You will be able to buy them back another day to advantage.

MORNING COTTON LETTER
(Thomson & McKinnon)
NEW YORK, Nov. 20. — We see no reason for finding ones self long over the government estimate of the crop which is due at 11 a. m. tomorrow. Crops are up. Speculators are long and the risk is great. We are for sales on hard spots for quick returns and a clean slate before eleven tomorrow.

LAST OF NOTED VILLA FAMILY PUT TO DEATH BY CONGRESS AID

Member of Notorious Bandit Gang Faces Firing Squad
(By The Associated Press.)
HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 20. — The last of the famous Villa family, notorious Mexican bandit, has met death before a firing squad, according to reports here. Confirmation of the death of Humberto Villa, brother of Pancho Villa, near Jimenez, Chihuahua, was received from the Mexico City correspondent of La Tribuna, local Mexican language newspaper. According to the correspondent, Villa was "tricked" by the Obregon government. After several months of guerrilla warfare with a handful of ragged followers, Villa opened negotiations three months ago with General Arnulfo Gomez, chief military chief of Chihuahua, for surrender. Villa agreed to lay down his arms if given the "hacienda Canupillo" where Pancho Villa set up a model ranch for his followers after making peace with Obregon, Gomez assented.

Villa went to Mexico City to confer with President Obregon. There the agreement to give him the hacienda was reiterated. But against the breaking of the pact Villa started for El Paso. At Jimenez he was taken from the train by Obregon troops.

A court martial was summoned, and in less than ten minutes he was executed by a firing squad.
